11. List all the courts and administrative tribunals in the United States or elsewhere to which you are or have been admitted to practice, and the dates of admission.

14. Have you ever applied for a judgeship?  Yes  No
 Please list dates and judgeships applied for, as well as whether you were nominated by the Judicial Council and appointed.

Fairbanks District Court	7-22-11	Yes	No

15. Have you ever held public or political office, elective or appointive?  Yes  No
If so, state office, manner selected, and when and where held.

I was appointed by Justice Christen to the Magistrate Judge position in August 2007. I began the position on October 17, 2007, and I am still in office.

16. Please provide the Council with information that you would like the Council to consider about other legal and nonlegal organizations and clubs of which you are a member, including civic, charitable, religious, educational, social and fraternal organizations. Please indicate whether you participate in the organization's activities, or simply hold a membership. Your involvement in the community is one of the criteria the Council uses in its evaluations. The Council does not use affiliation with a particular group as a criterion except to the extent that it might raise questions of conflict of interest or would affect an applicant's ability to impartially apply the law.

I have served on the Pastoral Advisory Counsel as well as the Faith Formation Coordinator Committee for Our Lady of the Angels Catholic Church in Kenai. I am actively involved in my daughter's varied activities. In Fairbanks, I was active in the International Right of Way Society, an organization for professionals involved in easement issues. I also served as President of the Sigma Phi Epsilon Alumni Board. I am a member of the UAF and Thomas M. Cooley Alumni Association.

I have also participated in a number of "Law Day" related activities such as conducting a mock trial with Nikiski Elementary Students, speaking at Kenai Peninsula Community College to the Introduction to Justice students, a question and answer session with the Kenai Peninsula Borough School District Introduction to Criminal Justice Career Course students, and inviting to court the parents and students of the Skyview High Special Education Class to familiarize the students with the courtroom and the parents with the adult guardianship process. In October, I am scheduled to give a presentation to students at Cook Inlet Academy on the topic of justice and the court system.

17. Indicate (Yes or No) whether you have ever:

- (a) been arrested, charged with, pled guilty or nolo contendere to, or been convicted of the violation of any law or ordinance, or been requested to appear before any prosecuting or investigative agency in connection with any matter in any jurisdiction, including all traffic offenses, unless the fine was less than $50 and there were no other sanctions?
 Yes  No
- (b) failed to answer any summons or other legal process served upon you personally at any time?  Yes  No
- (c) as a member of any armed forces, been the subject of any charges which may have resulted in disciplinary action or court martial?  Yes  No

- (d) had any proceedings brought to have you declared a ward of any court or adjudged an incompetent?  Yes  No
If your answer is "yes" to any part of this question, state the facts in detail. Give the name and place of the court or agency, dates of the beginning and end of any action or proceeding, case numbers, and the judgment or other disposition.

In 1999, I was at fault for a car accident in Michigan and received a citation for failing to yield. The record is not available. I paid the citation, but do not recall the amount. In September 2002, case number w526186, I received an $82.00 citation for shooting at a duck approximately five minutes after legal shooting hours. It was my fault. I forgot to bring a watch and it was a beautiful, clear evening. I also received a speeding citation in 2001; however, the fine amount was under $50.00.

18. (a) Has a tax lien or other collection procedure ever been instituted against you by federal, state or local authorities?  Yes  No
In particular, have you been the subject of any proceeding, criminal or civil, initiated against you by the Internal Revenue Service or a State Tax Office?  Yes  No

Do not list proceedings in which you were sued only in a representative capacity (e.g. guardian ad litem, or as Commissioner of Natural Resources).

In 1998, my home in Fairbanks was burglarized. I was called by the District Attorney's Office to testify before the Grand Jury. I attended the sentencing and the defendant paid restitution over the course of the next year or two.

19. State the nature and disposition of any of the following actions which apply to you:

- (a) Are there any unsatisfied judgments against you?  Yes  No

Question 23

The past several years have thoroughly prepared me to become a District Court Judge. I know from practicing before Judge Hammers, Judge Funk, Judge Kauvar, and Judge Burbank that the Fairbanks District Court is a high volume location, and my prior experiences in Fairbanks and Kenai have prepared me to immediately step into and competently handle a high volume load. I am also prepared to assist in the rural communities that Fairbanks serves as I have conducted numerous trials in Nenana, Healy, Tok, and Galena.

As an Assistant District Attorney in Fairbanks, I tried a high number of jury trials, primarily at the misdemeanor level, including driving under the influence trials, domestic violence assault, and numerous other varying offenses. Prior to that experience, I was in civil practice and had the opportunity to work with dedicated and skilled private attorneys in relevant areas of law such as collections, contracts, torts, and landlord tenant matters.

I left the Fairbanks District Attorney's Office when I accepted the position of Standing Master and Magistrate in the Third Judicial District in Kenai, beginning service on October 17, 2007. This position has provided valuable, daily experience in the District and Superior Courts. Unlike some locations where Magistrate Judges are confined to conducting arraignments, traffic trials, and reviewing warrants, in Kenai I have presided over approximately twenty to twenty-five criminal jury trials. I have conducted numerous criminal evidentiary hearings, bail hearings, and petition to revoke probation trials including ASAP and BIP violation allegations. In a civil context, I have presided over a large volume of small claims trials consisting of a multitude of legal issues. Additionally, I have heard numerous contested domestic relations issues, guardianships, probate matters, and the occasional forcible entry and detainer. In the past two years, I have also conducted settlement conferences of several Superior Court matters.

My wife and I are both graduates of the University of Alaska Fairbanks, 1998 and 1999 respectively. I expedited my law school education, graduating with honors in less than three years while working full time, so that we could return to Alaska.

Over the past decade, I have been consistently involved with the District Court in civil and criminal matters as a private practitioner, prosecutor, and judicial officer. I have a solid foundation in the criminal and civil matters heard in the District Court and can immediately fill the void left by the Honorable Jane Kauvar's appointment to the Superior Court.
