I currently volunteer to preside over the Anchorage Centralized Competency Calendar, which encompasses the majority of all Anchorage criminal matters in which there are questions about whether the defendant is competent to proceed to trial. In this capacity, I oversee the tracking of individuals through the competency process, preside over numerous competency-involved hearings, make orders on competency and restoration, and work to educate attorneys, judges, and other stakeholders about developments in the law on competency and strategies for addressing systemic challenges that have arisen in this area. I have also served as a judge on the CRP (Coordinated Resources Project) Court, beginning in 2014, and presided over that Court from September 2017 through March 2019. While serving on District Court, I helped to develop and oversee the Court's mediation program for FED (forcible entry and detainer) cases, and facilitated Alaska Legal Services' placement of trained attorneys at the courthouse to assist self-represented litigants during FED possession hearings.

Please provide the Council with information that you would like the Council to consider about other legal and nonlegal organizations and clubs of which you are a member, including civic, charitable, religious, educational, social and fraternal organizations. Please indicate whether you participate in the organization's activities, or simply hold a membership. Your involvement in the community is one of the criteria the Council uses in its evaluations. The Council does not use affiliation with a particular group as a criterion except to the extent that it might raise questions of conflict of interest or would affect an applicant's ability to impartially apply the law.

In addition to the work described in section 10(i) above, I serve as a Training Judge within the Court System. This involves meeting with, mentoring, and evaluating two Magistrate Judges, as well as facilitating the training of those judges. Further, I serve on the Judicial Conference Planning Committee and on the Alaska Bar Association CLE Committee. These committees focus upon development of educational programs regarding a variety of areas of law, procedure, and ethics for judges and attorneys respectively. I also speak on a regular basis to groups of students, attorneys, and sometimes judges about a variety of legal topics, and I volunteer as often as possible to assist with middle and high school mock trial competitions.

Additionally, I worked with a small team of judges, justices, administrators, and stakeholders to plan and convene a summit in early 2020 geared toward educating judges and practitioners in Alaska about ongoing efforts to improve community systems' responses to individuals experiencing mental health issues and about ideas for preventing, or improving, those individuals' encounters with the criminal justice and civil commitment systems. Although the pandemic has complicated efforts to follow up on the success of that summit, I am working with others to build upon the information and lessons that we garnered during the 2020 summit.

In the past, I have also been heavily involved in the development and operation of the nonprofit organization, Girls on the Run Serving Southcentral Alaska. Girls on the Run is a mentoring program that uses running as a vehicle to build strength and self-confidence in elementary school-aged girls. At various points, I have been involved as Co-Founder, Coach, and 5k Director for our local chapter of Girls on the Run.

Finally, I am active in my children's schools and with their athletic/extracurricular activities, and am a member of the Anchorage Running Club, the Nordic Skiing Association of Anchorage, and U.S.A. Triathlon.

I was involved in a minor car accident on December 6, 2009, during which I accidentally slid on ice into the back of another vehicle. I was issued a ticket on that date, with a fine of $60 and a $10 surcharge, and I paid the ticket without appearing in court.

Do not list proceedings in which you were sued only in a representative capacity (e.g. guardian ad litem, or as Commissioner of Natural Resources).

I was one of many defendants named in a case brought by Andrew Walker in the United States Bankruptcy Court in the Eastern District of Missouri. The case name was Andrew Walker v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company et al., Case No. 12-47852-399. Mr. Walker had previously been a plaintiff suing his landlords in Superior Court here in Anchorage, under various theories, based upon the landlords' decision not to renew his lease agreement. While working at Farley & Graves, P.C., I was one of the attorneys that defended Mr. Walker's landlords, and that case was dismissed on summary judgment. Shortly after that dismissal, and after I was appointed to the District Court, Mr. Walker filed the above-mentioned suit in Bankruptcy Court. That bankruptcy matter was dismissed shortly after I was notified about it.

Please do not submit: (a) coauthored writing samples, (b) samples with confidential information unless redacted to remove such information, (c) longer writing samples, (d) samples from open cases including cases on appeal.

22. Has any public sanction been imposed against you in response to a complaint, charge or grievance brought against you as an attorney or a judge?  Yes  No

Additional Comments (Non-Confidential)

23. Please make any additional comments that you wish to bring to the Council's attention about your experience and suitability for this judgeship.

I have had the privilege of serving as a Superior Court Judge for almost four years, and before that, as a District Court Judge for four years, following several years of practice in both civil and criminal law. My work as a judge has been both incredibly challenging and immensely rewarding. As a Superior Court Judge in Anchorage, I preside primarily over a broad array of civil cases, including a variety of contract, personal injury, general tort, Child in Need of Aid, divorce, custody, domestic violence, civil commitment, guardianship/conservatorship, and trust, will, and estate matters. Additionally, as the judge presiding over the Anchorage Centralized Competency Calendar, I conduct weekly hearings related to competency in criminal matters, oversee the administration of that calendar, and work to provide training and education to practitioners and to other judges regarding various aspects of competency law. Prior to being appointed to the Superior Court, while serving as a District Court Judge, I presided over all aspects of countless criminal, civil, and small claims matters. During my terms on both District and Superior Court, I have served as a judge on the Coordinated Resources Project, also referred to as mental health court, and I presided over that Court from September 2017 through March 2019.

Additional Comments (Continued)

My experiences in practicing law and in presiding over cases as a judge have reinforced in me a deep respect for the rule of law, and a commitment to maintaining the integrity of our court processes. I have had the opportunity to learn and better understand numerous areas of substantive law that impact the great variety of cases coming before our state courts and ultimately before the Alaska Supreme Court. Perhaps even more importantly, my experience as a judge has helped me to better understand how to clearly and effectively communicate, whether in writing or through spoken word, about the processes by which legal parties are able to pursue or defend their cases before the Court, about the laws that apply to any given case, and about how or why the application of law leads to a particular result in a given case. The ability of legal parties, and ultimately the public, to understand the law as it is applied by the courts, and to have confidence that the law is being fairly and consistently interpreted and applied, is paramount to maintaining an effective judiciary. My understanding of and experience with a number of areas of law, my ability to analyze and apply various legal frameworks to the facts before me, and my ability to explain the law and my legal decisions in a way that promotes understanding and confidence in those decisions will all help to prepare me for service as a Justice of the Supreme Court.

Finally, my work, both as a practitioner and then as a judge, has helped me to appreciate the leadership roles taken on by each of the Justices of the Supreme Court in a variety of contexts surrounding the work of the Court System, and to understand the crucial nature of such leadership. I hope to build upon my prior and current public service, and ultimately to contribute as a leader toward continued strengthening of our court processes and expanding the public's understanding of and confidence in our judiciary.

Date: January 8, 2021

I grew up in San Diego, California, and attended Claremont McKenna College, where I received my Bachelor's degree in Politics, Philosophy, and Economics. I then attended Yale Law School, where I combined my legal studies with a deep commitment to public service.

Following law school, I moved to Alaska to clerk for Justice Warren Matthews. After leaving Alaska for one year to clerk for the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, I returned and worked as an Assistant District Attorney at the Anchorage DA's Office. I then transitioned into civil practice at Farley & Graves, P.C., defending clients against a wide variety of civil claims.

I was appointed to the Anchorage District Court in November 2012, and then to the Anchorage Superior Court in May 2017. While on the Superior Court, I have presided over a primarily civil docket.

I am married and have two children.
