Alaska Bar Association Pro Bono Program--pro bono domestic cases when I was still practicing in that area of law.

I do pro bono work on a regular basis in my office. It typically involves DVPO hearings, DMV administrative hearings and licensing matters for court-appointed clients. These matters are beyond the scope of the contracted representation and I handle them on a voluntary basis. Additionally, I take on pro bono criminal cases on a regular basis. Typically I am working on at least one pro bono case at all times.

ADDENDUM TO #12

I have been on numerous Alaska Court System or Anchorage District Court committees for over twenty years. All committees have been heavily involved with developing policies, procedures and practice in the Anchorage District Court.

Criminal Justice Assessment Commission (CJAC)-Decriminalizing the Mentally Ill subcommittee (1997)—CJAC was a statewide commission working with National Institute of Corrections to develop more cost-effective and cooperative systems of criminal justice. From our subcommittee we helped create the CRP court.

CRP Court ad hoc committee (1997-8)—Represented the law firm at organizing meetings for development of the CRP court. At the court's request my law partner and I agreed to exclusively staff this court in 1998 in order to develop long term consistency with the court and our particularly vulnerable clients. We did this for the next sixteen years. I have staffed it full time for the past three years.

Alaska Veterans Court ad hoc committee (2004)—Part of organizing group for the first veterans specialty court in the United States including starting it a "rogue" operation, eventually mainstreaming it by developing policies and procedures, working with VA and Vet Center to coordinate treatment and court needs. I staffed this court exclusively for the first several years until it was up and running. I have staffed it full time for the past three years.

Anchorage District Court Petition To Revoke Probation (PTRP) Adjudication/Disposition Project (2006/2017)—Part of organizing group experimenting with a therapeutic model for handling alcohol, DVIP, and community work service PTRPs, with emphasis on centralized, court-supervised completion of these requirements, and consistent consequences for continued non-compliance. We are currently revisiting the model after eleven years to see what adjustments are necessary. I staffed this court on a full time basis for several until it was up and running.

OWL (Operating without License) Court ad hoc committee—Part of organizing group developing specialty court aimed at helping drivers obtain operators licenses in exchange for reduction or dismissal of DWLR charges. DWLR cases accounted for a large percentage of the district court caseload and possibly a larger percentage of misdemeanor jail time being imposed by the court. Previous diversion efforts were only marginally effective, so it was decided to develop a court-supervised program instead.

Anchorage District Court restructuring committees

-Jail courtroom design committee

-Restructuring committees chaired in various years by Steve Bouch, Judge Peter Ashman, and Judge Patrick Hanley. All committees were created for major restructuring of district court calendaring including creation of the grid system, adding pre-trial conferences, modifications to trial call and PTRP formats, reorganization of daily calendaring to include addition of the jail court and various specialty courts (CRP, OWL, Wellness, Veterans Court, jail court calendar).

Therapeutic Court stakeholder committees

Coordinated Resources Project (“CRP” or “mental health court”)--regular meetings throughout the year focusing on policy and procedure review, training, and new issues involving the court.

Wellness Court--regular stakeholder meetings throughout the year focusing on policy and procedure review, training, and review of new issues involving the court.

Veterans Court-- Same as the others above, but with current focus on expanding funding avenues, extensive training in order to implement emerging national standards for veteran’s courts, visiting local facilities and discussing ways to improve integration between available treatment and court, travel to Outside veterans courts to observe operations and mentoring programs.

Criminal Justice Working Groups

Pretrial Delay-Working group with the Attorney General, Anchorage DA, Public Defender, Municipal Prosecutor, OPA and Denali Law Group exploring, resolving pretrial delay issues.

Title 12 Competency Process-Working group on development of a integrated statewide Title 12 competency evaluation process,

15. Have you ever held public or political office, elective or appointive? Yes No
If so, state office, manner selected, and when and where held.

16. Please provide the Council with information that you would like the Council to consider about other legal and nonlegal organizations and clubs of which you are a member, including civic, charitable, religious, educational, social and fraternal organizations. Please indicate whether you participate in the organization's activities, or simply hold a membership. Your involvement in the community is one of the criteria the Council uses in its evaluations. The Council does not use affiliation with a particular group as a criterion except to the extent that it might raise questions of conflict of interest or would affect an applicant's ability to impartially apply the law.

I don't tend to join clubs but volunteer my time whenever asked.

-Anchorage Police Department

-Trial training--I have been asked to help conduct trial training exercises with academy recruits since 1992. We conduct two such exercises per academy class.

-Guest lecturer--I have lectured on a number of occasions during the OUI portion of training on police report writing from the defense attorney perspective.

-"Every Fifteen Minutes" program--I have participated in this program since 2010. Volunteers from APD, AFD, DOC, and legal community put on a two-day OUI-homicide reenactment at a local high school each spring, The program focuses on high school juniors and seniors, challenging them to think about the consequences of drinking, driving and making mature decisions.

-Competitive soccer--competitive soccer coach, board member for Norther Lights Soccer Club. I coached competitive soccer on a year-round basis for ten years. I never accepted my coaching fees. Instead I kept them in a club account and used them to defray costs for low-income family players and pay for team activities.

-Anchorage West Little League--Volunteer coach

-"We The People" competition judge--Hanshew Junior High School

17. Indicate (Yes or No) whether you have ever:
- (a) been arrested, charged with, pled guilty or nolo contendere to, or been convicted of the violation of any law or ordinance, or been requested to appear before any prosecuting or investigative agency in connection with any matter in any jurisdiction, including all traffic offenses, unless the fine was less than $50 and there were no other sanctions?
 Yes No
 - (b) failed to answer any summons or other legal process served upon you personally at any time? Yes No
 - (c) as a member of any armed forces, been the subject of any charges which may have resulted in disciplinary action or court martial? Yes No

- (d) had any proceedings brought to have you declared a ward of any court or adjudged an incompetent? Yes No
If your answer is "yes" to any part of this question, state the facts in detail. Give the name and place of the court or agency, dates of the beginning and end of any action or proceeding, case numbers, and the judgment or other disposition.

2008--Speeding ticket near Skilak Lake. The ticket was dismissed after completion of a defensive driving course.

18. (a) Has a tax lien or other collection procedure ever been instituted against you by federal, state or local authorities? Yes No
In particular, have you been the subject of any proceeding, criminal or civil, initiated against you by the Internal Revenue Service or a State Tax Office? Yes No
If so, give particulars, including case numbers.

- (b) Have you ever been sued by a client? Yes No
If so, give particulars, including case numbers.

- (c) Have you ever been a party in any other legal proceeding? Yes No
If so, give the particulars. Include all legal proceedings in which you were a party in interest, including petitioner or respondent in dissolution or divorce proceedings; a material witness; a named co-conspirator or correspondent; and subject or witness in any grand jury proceedings. Do not list proceedings in which you were sued only in a representative capacity (e.g. guardian ad litem, or as Commissioner of Natural Resources).

3AN-14-05266CI--Property division matter which was settled and dismissed by agreement of the parties without any court involvement.

19. State the nature and disposition of any of the following actions which apply to you:

- (a) Are there any unsatisfied judgments against you? Yes No
Have you ever defaulted in the performance of any court-imposed obligation, including payment of alimony or child support or compliance with another court order or decree?

Yes No

In each case, list the name and address of the creditor, the court which rendered the judgment, the case number, the date, the amount of the judgment, and the circumstances on which such claim was based.

Has property owned by you been either judicially or non-judicially foreclosed?

Yes No

Please state the circumstances and outcome of any such unsatisfied or default judgment, or of any foreclosure.

- (b) Have you ever made an assignment for the benefit of creditors? Yes No
Have you ever filed any petition in bankruptcy? Yes No
If so, state the circumstances, case number, and the outcome.

References and Counsel Questionnaires*

- * Please Note: Letters of reference from these persons are confidential and will not be given to the applicant. If the reference asks (in writing) that the letter be shared with the governor, the Council will send designated letters and counsel questionnaires for each nominee. The applicant should not request a copy of the letter from the reference. (You should not list the Chief Justice of the Alaska Supreme Court.)

References or letters not solicited by the Council are considered public (with few exceptions) and will be sent to the governor for all nominees.

- Have you ever been fined or otherwise sanctioned by a judge? Yes No
- In each case, state in detail the circumstances and the outcome.

See attached ADDENDUM To #22

Additional Comments (Non-Confidential)

23. Please make any additional comments that you wish to bring to the Council's attention about your experience and suitability for this judgeship.

I have practiced law in Alaska courts since 1988. Since 1999 I have either supervised or managed five lawyers and support staff working on the Anchorage indigent defender contract, handling over 4000 cases a year. During this time and while a prosecutor in Brooklyn, New York, I have tried approximately 120 cases in district and superior courts, in both the criminal and civil cases. As this application indicates, I have balanced my role as an advocate with extensive collaborative work in the Anchorage district court. I have been on various committees and working groups addressing the structure and function of the court, as well as the development, implementation and continuing operation of its three major therapeutic courts (Wellness, Vet, and CRP Courts). I have worked with prosecuting agencies to help streamline discovery, cut down on pleadings and develop shared positions regarding court matters. As a district court judge I will be able to use this experience in several important ways. First, my professional experience is well suited to this particular position. The

I have had two grievances filed against me which were opened for investigation. Both were dismissed. Attached to ADDENDUM To #31 is a current list of all grievances filed against me. I have put them in the confidential section of the application because they contain the names of the complainants. Below are the only two opened for investigation.

1990-D238

I have no recollection of this grievance. It was dismissed and all records were destroyed.

I believe it had to do with a client who changed his plea on an OUI and DWLR charge. He complained that I did not request that the sentences run concurrently. At that time and OUI sentence was not allowed to run concurrently with any other sentence, so there was no legal basis for the complaint.

2004-D030

A judge filed a grievance concerning a potential conflict Gorton & Logue may have had in its representation of two clients.

Bar counsel found that no conflict existed. The judge filed for reconsideration and bar counsel again found that no conflict existed.

1990- Judge Glen Anderson ordered me to make a $10 donation to the charity of my choice for a late filed motion.

1993(?)-Judge Martha Beckwith ordered me to make a $25 donation to the charity of my choice for not having a plea agreement formalized.

1996(?)-Judge Sigurd Murphy ordered me to make a donation to the charity of my choice for a long forgotten transgression.

The second donation started a family tradition in which every Thanksgiving I took my children to Beans Café with $100, two fresh baked pies and a frozen turkey. This continued until they went off to college.

Anchorage district court is the largest, busiest and most varied court in Alaska. It deals with an extremely large diverse population of customers, many of whom are unrepresented and have access issues (language, cultural, mental health, homelessness, etc.). Each brings their individual problems before the court in search of justice. I have spent the bulk of my career in this environment. In addition to having a strong understanding of the legal issues which commonly come before this court, I am comfortable working with the sheer crush of humanity and cases which the court sees every day.

Second, I have been fully committed since Day One to the tremendous therapeutic court programs we have developed in the district court. The CRP and Vet Court are two of the oldest such courts in the United States (CRP, #4, Vet Court #1). If given the opportunity I will continue to do whatever I can to maintain their vitality and continue their development.

Third, there is little glamour in this job. The daily crush of cases, the disappointments and small indignities never go away. A judge in this particular court is expected to embrace and immerse themselves in them. It is not a stop along the way to the next level but a destination in itself. I am fully cognizant of this and I look forward to taking on the challenges of this particular position.

24. Please indicate whether you prefer to be interviewed in public session or in private session. Your choice of a public or private interview has no bearing on the Council's determination of your qualifications or on the questions the Council may ask. You may change your request in writing at any time before the interview starts.

Public Interview

Private Interview

25. Please prepare a brief biographical statement (limited to 150 words) about your background, legal education, and legal experience. Please do not list personal information about minor children. Your picture and a copy of this statement will be scanned and posted on the Council's website after the application deadline. In its bar survey, the Council will invite attorneys to review the information if they wish to become more familiar with your background and experience. Use the form on the following page for your biographical statement. Please leave the box at the top empty. The Council will use this space for your scanned picture. To be fair to all applicants, the Council will strictly enforce the 150 word limit.

If you object to the posting of your picture on the Council's website, please indicate your objection below. If you object, we will not post your picture, although you still must submit five photographs of yourself with your application.

If you check this box we will not post your picture on the website.

I was born in Philadelphia, the fourth of six children. My parents were both teachers. I graduated from Villanova University and Villanova University School of Law. I began my legal career in Brooklyn, New York as a prosecutor before heading to Alaska in 1988.

My Alaska career began when I posted an index card on the law library bulletin board looking for contact work. I eventually started practicing at what would become Gorton & Logue where I had a mixed indigent and private criminal practice along with a civil caseload. Once I became a partner my responsibilities expanded to supervising the indigent defender contract and working on numerous district court projects over the years.

I am now with Denali Law Group, where I continue to have a mixed indigent and private practice.
