A bar complaint filed by Dustin O. Jones, ABA No. 2015D074, was dismissed without further investigation after the initial complaint. For an explanation, see letters dated July 3, 2015 and August 13, 2015, attached as Appendix B.

Additional Comments (Non-Confidential)

23. Please make any additional comments that you wish to bring to the Council's attention about your experience and suitability for this judgeship.

I was born in Nuremberg, Germany, where my father was stationed while in the U.S. Army. My father's military service instilled in me a sense of duty for public service at an early age. We moved quite often while I was growing up, including stops at command posts in Kansas, California, Georgia and Virginia.

My high school years were spent in the Netherlands, where I attended AFCENT International with the children of other military families from Britain, Germany, Canada, Turkey, Norway and Iceland. It was an experience for which I am grateful because it broadened my conception of my place in the world.

I received a journalism degree from the University of Kansas where working for both the student newspaper and radio station helped hone my skills of investigation, research, oral communication and writing under deadline pressure.

Re: Dustin Jones, ABA File No. 2015D074
Case No. 1SI-15-33 CR

Ms. Driscoll:

Mr. Jones was arrested in Sitka on January 27, 2015, for felony driving under the influence, felony refusal, driving with license revoked and assault four - domestic violence. He has a long criminal history including a prior felony driving under the influence from 2010. If convicted in this matter, Mr. Jones will spend years in jail. I consider defense in his case a very serious matter.

Mr. Jones complains that I have unnecessarily delayed in handling his case and have failed to make specific, timely arguments upon his request. Mr. Jones' complaints are without merit.

In addition to bail and omnibus hearings, I took time in Mr. Jones case to request and conduct a representation hearing upon his demand in February and March of 2015. Mr. Jones complaint at that time was that he wanted a new attorney. He was upset because I informed him I was going file motions on his behalf to suppress evidence. Mr. Jones was unhappy because the motions would toll his right to a speedy trial. At the conclusion of the representation hearing I remained Mr. Jones' lawyer.

Mr. Jones now complains that I have been untimely in filing motions, motions which were delayed in substantial part because of Mr. Jones' own demand to have me removed as counsel. I halted work on the motions to suppress because I was not certain how the representation hearing would be resolved. It was entirely possible that the court could have permitted Mr. Jones to represent himself. I wasn't going to put the time and energy into drafting motions for naught.

I filed the first motion to suppress for Miranda violations April 7, 2015. The same day I filed a second motion to suppress for lack of probable cause. On April 8, 2015, I filed a third motion to suppress for Graham violations. On May 28, 2015, I filed a fourth motion seeking remedies for Copelin violations.

The Sitka Superior court held evidentiary hearings July 1 and July 2, 2015. I was zealous in my cross examination of the police officers. Fortunately I was able to convince Mr. Jones that it would be unwise for him to testify on his own behalf. Oral argument on all four motions is set for this Monday, July 6, 2015. I am cautiously optimistic that the judge will grant at least some of the relief I have requested.

The statement above is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Thank you,

Jude Pate

Case No. 1SI-15-33 CR

Ms. Driscoll:

I realize this grievance matter has been closed by the Alaska Bar, but I wanted to make sure your files reflected the fact that the Sitka superior court granted relief I sought in my motion work for Mr. Jones. See enclosed order. The felony charges were dismissed by the prosecution and yesterday Mr. Jones pled to misdemeanor charges with jail time served.

Thank you,

I have devoted my career to the ideal of public service. It is my belief that public service, and in particular participation in the judicial system, is a sacred obligation.

My experience is well-rounded and includes litigation in all areas of practice that are within the general jurisdiction of the Sitka Superior Court. I have litigated and performed legal services in all communities in Southeast Alaska, and specifically those communities most often served by the Sitka Superior Court - the Prince of Wales Island communities, Angoon, Wrangell, Juneau and Ketchikan.

It would be a great honor, and a tremendous responsibility, to serve as the Superior Court Judge for the community of Sitka.

Beginning September 25, 2017, I will be shifting positions to the appellate unit of the Public Defender Agency. My office will remain in Sitka at the same address.

I received the Public Defender Agency's litigator of the year award in 2011.

I received the Alaska Bar Association's professionalism award in 2017.
