Alaska Judicial Council Recommendation

Judge Jack W. Smith, Superior Court, Anchorage

Judicial Council Recommendation 2010

The Alaska Judicial Council is a non-partisan citizens' commission established by the Alaska constitution. Alaskan law requires the Council to evaluate judges' performance and authorizes the Council to recommend to voters whether judges should be retained in office. The Judicial Council reviews judges' integrity, diligence, legal ability, fairness, demeanor, ability to manage their caseloads, and overall performance of their judicial responsibilities in and out of the courtroom. The Judicial Council finds Judge Smith to be Qualified and recommends unanimously that the public vote "YES" to retain him as a superior court judge.

Judicial Council Evaluation

The Judicial Council surveyed thousands of Alaskans including peace and probation officers, court employees, attorneys, jurors, social workers/guardians ad litem, and child advocates about the judges on the ballot. Respondents were asked to rate judicial performance and to submit comments. The Council also reviewed the ratings and observations of the Alaska Judicial Observers, independent community-based volunteers. The Council reviewed the judge's preemptory challenge, recusals, and appellate affirmance and reversal rates; any civil or criminal litigation involving the judge; APOC and court system conflict-of-interest statements; any disciplinary files involving the judge; and whether a judge's pay was withheld for an untimely decision. The Council reviewed other court records and investigated judicial conduct in specific cases. The Council interviewed some judges, attorneys, and court staff, and held a statewide public hearing to obtain comments about judges.

1. Please estimate your workload during your present term.

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| a) 78 % civil cases | b) 4 # of jury trials/year |
| 20 % criminal cases | 61 # of non-jury trials/year |
| 2 % court administrative work | 4 # of administrative appeals/year |
| 100 % Total | |

My cases were 100% civil until 1 September 2009. As of that date I have a criminal caseload. Until closeout of my term I will be doing almost 100% criminal cases. The number of jury trials performed should rise dramatically with a criminal case load. Correspondingly the number of non-jury trials should decrease.

2. Please describe your participation on court/bar committees or other administrative activities during your current term of office.

During this term I have been a training judge for magistrates in Palmer, Dillingham, Kenai and Cordova in 2008 and 2009. I was the traveling judge for superior court cases in Cordova during 2008 and 2009. Both of these additional duties ended when I began a criminal caseload 8-31-2009.

The Judicial Council's Evaluation Process

State law requires the Judicial Council to evaluate each judge standing for retention, and to report its evaluations to the voters. The three surveys reported here are an important part of the Council's evaluations. The Council also considers survey ratings by jurors and court employees, public comments, and the ratings by the independent citizen volunteers at Alaska Judicial Observers. Along with the personal observations of the hundreds of people who had direct professional experience with the judge, the Council reviews any litigation involving the judge, conflict of interest records, public disciplinary files, and indicators of judicial performance such as appellate affirmances and reversals, and peremptory challenges and recusals. All of the evaluation information about the judge is on the Council's website at www.ajc.state.ak.us.
