Alaska Judicial Council Recommendation

Judge Vanessa H. White, Superior Court, Palmer

Judicial Council Recommendation 2010

The Alaska Judicial Council is a non-partisan citizens' commission established by the Alaska constitution. Alaskan law requires the Council to evaluate judges' performance and authorizes the Council to recommend to voters whether judges should be retained in office. The Judicial Council reviews judges' integrity, diligence, legal ability, fairness, demeanor, ability to manage their caseloads, and overall performance of their judicial responsibilities in and out of the courtroom. The Judicial Council finds Judge White to be Qualified and recommends unanimously that the public vote "YES" to retain her as a superior court judge.

Judicial Council Evaluation

The Judicial Council surveyed thousands of Alaskans including peace and probation officers, court employees, attorneys, jurors, social workers/guardians ad litem, and child advocates about the judges on the ballot. Respondents were asked to rate judicial performance and to submit comments. The Council also reviewed the ratings and observations of the Alaska Judicial Observers, independent community-based volunteers. The Council reviewed the judge's preemptory challenge, recusals, and appellate affirmance and reversal rates; any civil or criminal litigation involving the judge; APOC and court system conflict-of-interest statements; any disciplinary files involving the judge; and whether a judge's pay was withheld for an untimely decision. The Council reviewed other court records and investigated judicial conduct in specific cases. The Council interviewed some judges, attorneys, and court staff, and held a statewide public hearing to obtain comments about judges.

Appropriate areas of comment could include: satisfaction with your judicial role, specific contributions to the judiciary or the field of law, increases in legal knowledge and judicial skills, or other measures of judicial abilities that you believe to be important.

After nearly three years on the bench, I continue to believe that I have the greatest job in the world. I think that my skill set is well-suited to the work, even if my legal knowledge lags a bit behind. I work long, hard hours to fill the gaps in my legal training and experience, especially in the area of criminal law. I hope the litigants and attorneys who appear in my court recognize that I will work diligently to insure that I have a sufficient store of knowledge before I rule. The best way to increase my knowledge is to acknowledge and address those areas where I still am learning.

I try to contribute to the Valley Community when and where I can, given ethical constraints. I preside over graduations for CASA volunteers. I am scheduled to speak with Mat-Su school principals. I present at CLE's and attend other trainings for GALs/CASAs, etc. I attend and participate in Justice Faber's "Success Inside and Out" at Highland Mountain Correctional.

My judicial skills are improving. My working knowledge of evidence has improved significantly. I maintain reasonably good control of my courtroom. I believe I have a good judicial temperament.

The Judicial Council's Evaluation Process

State law requires the Judicial Council to evaluate each judge standing for retention, and to report its evaluations to the voters. The three surveys reported here are an important part of the Council's evaluations. The Council also considers survey ratings by jurors and court employees, public comments, and the ratings by the independent citizen volunteers at Alaska Judicial Observers. Along with the personal observations of the hundreds of people who had direct professional experience with the judge, the Council reviews any litigation involving the judge, conflict of interest records, public disciplinary files, and indicators of judicial performance such as appellate affirmances and reversals, and peremptory challenges and recusals. All of the evaluation information about the judge is on the Council's website at www.ajc.state.ak.us.
