

Alaska Judicial Council
Summary of Performance Evaluation for:

Justice Peter J. Maassen
Alaska Supreme Court

The Judicial Council finds Justice Maassen to be qualified and recommends unanimously that the public vote “YES” to retain him as a supreme court justice.

Summary

The Judicial Council’s recommendation to vote “YES” on Justice Maassen is based on his overall performance, including: evaluations by attorneys and other professionals who have direct experience with Justice Maassen; public records; APOC files; and any disciplinary files.

The Council researched other aspects of Justice Maassen’s performance, such as whether his pay was withheld for untimely decisions. Based on its review of all this information, the Judicial Council recommends a “YES” vote on Justice Maassen. Performance evaluation information about Justice Maassen is detailed below.

Details

1. Biographical Information. Justice Maassen has been a supreme court justice since 2012. This is his first retention election. For more biographical information about Justice Maassen, click here.
2. Survey Ratings. People who had direct experience with the justice took a survey to rate him on qualities such as legal ability, impartiality and fairness, integrity, judicial temperament, diligence, and overall performance. These survey participants used a 1 to 5 scale to evaluate the justice’s performance, where 5.0 was “excellent,” 4.0 was “good,” 3.0 was “acceptable,” 2.0 was “deficient,” and 1.0 was “poor.”

Attorney Survey Results. Attorneys who responded to the Judicial Council’s survey on Justice Maassen’s performance gave him an average rating of 4.6 overall. For detailed attorney survey results on Justice Maassen, click here.

Court Employee Survey Results. Court employees who responded to the Judicial Council’s survey on Justice Maassen gave him an average rating of 4.8 overall. For detailed court employee survey results on Justice Maassen, click here.

3. Salary Withholdings. Alaska law requires a justice’s pay to be withheld for unfinished work. No salary was withheld for Justice Maassen during this time. For general information about salary withholding, click here.

Alaska Judicial Council Appellate Judge Questionnaire

2016 Candidates for Judicial Retention

October 2015

Peter Maassen

Supreme Court

Name

Court

1. Please estimate your workload during your present term.

a) 80 % civil cases

b) _____ # of trials/year (as trial judge, if any)

15 % criminal cases

5 % court administrative work

100 % Total

2. Please describe your participation on court/bar committees or other administrative activities during your current term of office.

1. I serve as co-chair of the Supreme Court's Access to Justice Committee, which is now part of the Access and Fairness Commission. The committee has approximately 15 members and meets 4-5 times a year to discuss access issues, air ideas for new projects, and decide how to support existing projects. I attend smaller ad hoc meetings throughout the year as well as an annual out-of-state conference for chairs.

2. I also chair the Judicial Conference Planning Committee, which meets monthly and plans educational sessions for the bi-annual (going forward, only annual) judicial conferences.

3. I am the judicial representative on the Alaska Bar Association's pro bono committee, whose mission significantly overlaps that of the Access to Justice Committee. The pro bono committee meets irregularly. (Continued on separate sheet.)

3. Please assess, in one or two paragraphs, your judicial performance during your present term. Appropriate areas of comment could include: satisfaction with your judicial role, specific contributions to the judiciary or the field of law, increases in legal knowledge and judicial skills, or other measures of judicial abilities that you believe to be important.

The learning curve was steep. Coming into the job I was immediately immersed in substantive areas of the law in which I had little experience: particularly criminal, domestic relations, and child-in-need-of-aid cases. But apparently I'm not too old to learn; I believe that I'm now conversant enough in the areas of substantive law regularly encountered here that I begin my analysis of most issues from a baseline of rough competence. I'm also becoming more comfortable with the daily handling of motions and petitions; with volume and experience, I'm (usually) able to deal with them substantively and efficiently without agonizing too long over each one. I still caution myself that every motion, petition, and appeal, no matter how routine, has great importance to somebody and deserves my whole and impartial attention.

I get great satisfaction from this job and can't imagine a better one for me. I'm very comfortable with the working atmosphere on the court. I love the variety of cases. I enjoy the exchange of views with my colleagues and the constant opportunities to learn from them and from the lawyers who appear before us. I greatly enjoy the writing process and only wish it went more quickly. I still have a lot to learn about time-management; I'm behind where I want to be in terms of getting my draft opinions circulating among the other members of the court.

I believe that my committee activities over the past three years (summarized above) have benefited the court system in important ways, and I hope to continue them.

I try to write opinions that are readable and clear, and I think I'm succeeding for the most part. Essentially, I hope to maintain throughout my career the court's existing high standards of fairness, personal integrity, and the clarity of judicial reasoning.

4. During your most recent term as a judge, have you:
- a) had a tax lien filed or other collection procedure instituted against you by federal, state, or local authorities? Yes No
 - b) been involved in a non-judicial capacity in any legal proceeding whether as a party or otherwise? Yes No
 - c) engaged in the practice of law (other than as a judge)? Yes No
 - d) held office in any political party? Yes No
 - e) held any other local, state or federal office? Yes No
 - f) had any complaints, charges or grievances filed against you with the Alaska Commission on Judicial Conduct, the Alaska Bar Association, or with the Alaska Court System that resulted in public proceedings or sanctions? Yes No

5. If your answer to any of the questions above is "yes," please give full details, including dates, facts, case numbers and outcomes.

6. Please provide any other information which you believe would assist the Council in conducting its evaluations and in preparing its recommendations for the 2016 retention elections.

I continue to be involved with the Anchorage Youth Court as a member of the Board of Directors. I'm in my third three-year term as a Board member, having served in the past as secretary and as chair. The mission of AYC --- restorative justice for the young offenders and building confidence and skills in the student attorneys and judges --- remains among my priorities.

For questions 7 and 8, please do not list any cases that have pending issues in your court.

- 7. Please list your six most recent opinions including case names and numbers. Please list the names, current addresses, including zip codes and suite numbers where applicable, of each attorney involved in these appeals. (Attach additional pages if necessary.)

ADDENDUM TO PETER MAASSEN'S RETENTION QUESTIONNAIRE

4. I prepare for and participate in the monthly administrative conferences that we have as a court. These involve discussions and decision-making with regard to budgets, personnel, rule-making, and other administrative tasks.

Question 7 (continued):

In answering this question I included only cases in which both sides had attorney representation. Of my six most recent published opinions, two had self-represented litigants on both sides and one had no appearance for the appellee. They are:

Luker v. Sykes, 357 P.3d 1191 (Oct. 16, 2015) (both sides pro se)

Wells v. Barile, 358 P.3d 585 (Oct. 16, 2015) (both sides pro se)

Hope P. v. Flynn G., 355 P.3d 559 (Sept. 4, 2015) (appellant represented by John Parsi, 420 L St., Ste. 400, Anchorage, Alaska 99501; no appearance by appellee)

Salary Warrant Withholding

Alaska law states: "A salary disbursement may not be issued to a [justice or judge] until the [justice or judge] has filed with the state officer designated to issue salary disbursements an affidavit that no matter referred to the [justice or judge] for opinion or decision has been uncompleted or undecided by the judge for a period of more than six months." As soon as the judge completes or decides the matter and signs the affidavit, the salary warrant may be issued.

No appellate judge had any salary warrants withheld. The appellate judges on the 2016 ballot are Supreme Court Justice Peter Maassen, Supreme Court Justice Joel Bolger, and Court of Appeals Judge Marjorie Allard.

Of the sixteen superior court judges on the ballot in 2016, two had pay withheld during the evaluation period:

Judge Pallenberg had four salary warrants withheld during the evaluation period:

Pay period	Regular warrant date:	Late Pay issued:
2/29/2012	3/9/2012	3/13/2012
1/15/2013	1/25/2013	1/31/2013
2/15/2015	2/24/2015	3/2/2015
3/31/2015	4/9/2015	4/13/2015

Judge White had two salary warrants withheld during the evaluation period:

Pay period	Regular warrant date:	Late Pay issued:
10/31/2010	10/09/2010	11/24/2010
2/15/2011	2/24/2011	3/8/2011

Judges Eric Aarseth, Catherine Easter, David George, Bethany Harbison, Jane Kauvar, Kari Kristiansen, Michael MacDonald, Erin Marston, Dwayne McConnell, Anna Moran, Mark Rindner, Kevin Saxby, Jack Smith, and Trevor Stephens had no salary warrants withheld.

No district court judge appearing on the 2016 ballot had salary warrants withheld. The district court judges on the 2016 ballot are Matthew Christian, Patrick Hammers, J. Patrick Hanley, Jennifer Henderson, Margaret Murphy, Thomas Nave, Nathaniel Peters, Daniel Schally, Alex Swiderski, David Wallace, Pamela Washington, and David Zwink.
