Anchorage District Court

Date: February 8, 2024 (revised 3/26/24)

I grew up in West Virginia. I have a B.A. in Mathematics from Bard College in upstate New York, and I attended Northeastern University School of Law.

After law school, I clerked for Anchorage Superior Court Judge Sen Tan, and then joined the Alaska Public Defender Agency in the criminal trial unit. After that, I had a solo practice for 5 years, initially practicing criminal defense but soon adding family & unbundled law and landlord-tenant cases.

In 2016, I joined the Municipality of Anchorage where I represented the city in civil litigation & workers comp, and then transferred to the Municipal Prosecutor's Office. From 2021-2023 I was Deputy then Acting MOA Prosecutor, eventually supervising 30 employees.

I am currently a Magistrate Judge in Anchorage. My husband and I enjoy shows at the PAC, camping, and raising our two daughters. It would be an honor to serve on Anchorage District Court.
