Palmer Superior Court

Date: 1/18/24

After graduating in the top 10% of my class at the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, I moved to Alaska in 2004, clerking for the Anchorage Superior Court. I spent the next 15 years as an Assistant District Attorney in Fairbanks, Nome, and Bethel.

Since 2020, I have been a District Court Judge in Palmer. It is a job that I enjoy and is in a community that I love. A substantial component of my job is Superior Court pro-tem work.

In my free time I run my sled dogs, a team that helped me complete the 2016 Iditarod, and build furniture in my woodshop.
