Palmer Superior Court

Date: February 4, 2024

I grew up in Palmer, Alaska and have spent more than three decades in Alaska. I am a Palmer High School graduate, obtained my history degree at the University of North Carolina -Wilmington, and my law degree at Western State University College of Law. After law school, I returned home and clerked for a Palmer Superior Court Judge. The Mat-Su Valley has always been home to me. I started working for a busy civil litigation firm in Anchorage before joining the Anchorage District Attorney's Office, where I currently supervise the Major Crimes Unit. I currently reside in the Mat-Su Valley with my wife and children. I enjoy spending time with my family, playing softball, camping, fishing, and youth sports. It would be a pleasure to continue serving the people of Alaska as a Superior Court Judge in my hometown.
