Name: Laura Wolff

Position(s) for which you wish to be considered:

Alaska Supreme Court Justice

Date: July 24, 2024

In law school, I came to Alaska for a few days to explore the mountains and immediately knew I belonged here. I clerked here after law school, briefly worked in private practice, and then returned to public service.

After marrying, I promised my husband I would move with him to D.C. for a minimum of three years because his dream job was there. I did, and gained valuable legal experience working for the D.C. Circuit and teaching writing at a local law school. But at exactly three years, I found a job with the Department of Law and convinced my husband to move back to Alaska. I have been working for Alaskans ever since in the Opinions, Appeals, and Ethics section of the Department of Law, and would be honored to continue working for Alaskans as a Justice on the Alaska Supreme Court.
