VII. 2025 conference of National Association of Sentencing Commissions

Alaska has been an active member of NASC since its beginning 30 years ago. AJC staff have served on committees and on the board, and attend the annual conference. Last year several members of the DAC also attended the conference. Are any members interested in going this year?

The National Association of Sentencing Commissions is a nonprofit group whose membership is open to anyone who works for or serves on a sentencing policy agency, and anyone in the public, academic, or private sectors is interested in criminal sentencing. NASC was organized in 1993 out of an informal gathering of state sentencing commissions. More info: www.thenasc.org .

Location: Monona Terrace Convention Center, Madison, Wisconsin
Date: August 11 -12, 2025
Conference theme: The Future of Sentencing Commissions
